Miss Vera House, of Brevard, N. C., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Sausler.—Spartanburg Journal. Don't like to be personal, and puns are often bad, but there is something peculiar about that first name in view of the fact that it lacks only an al of being the name of a former Newberry young lady.

Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Connor returned last week from a visit to relatives at Cokesbury, and Dr. Connor is prepared to give his usual careful attention to all persons whose eyes need "looking into." In "looking after" your eyes you couldn't do a better thing than consult Dr. Connor who is a "natural born eye doctor."

Mr. Lambert W. Jones, a prominent attorney of Newberry, was a visitor in the city this morning.—Greenwood Journal, 16th. VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

The Newberry June bride is still in the line of march.

The Arcade is the coolest place in town.

Another nice shower Wednesday night.

Think of Dr. Fred Cook being in Orangeburg this week. It is remarkable.

Rev. W. H. Kirton will preach at the O'Neill street Methodist church on next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Speaking of right sounding and well fitting names a camp of Woodmen of the World in Orangeburg is called Walnut camp.

A train or another automobile is about the only thing an automobile is afraid of.—Greenville Piedmont. Some of them in Newberry are not.

There is a man in North Carolina named Quince Lemons. If he lived in Newberry people here would be getting off something on his names.

Time enough yet to talk about those higher prizes. The $25 ring from the Arcade-Airdome is pretty big just now. It will be watched with much interest and will grow in pleasure.

Old man Abe Martin says: "Money talks and that is the reason so many of us get drowned out of the conversation."—Greenville Piedmont. Some of us down here are drowned out right now.

There is a firm in Orangeburg with a smooth sounding name—Reneker and Riggs. The names fit in so snugly. No use talking about it, there is nothing like a thing sounding all right.

It is lively on Friday nights with the band at the Airdome. It is soothing to the nerves to see fine motion pictures and listen to the music. It wouldn't seem like Friday night at the Airdome without the band.

Speaking of the Red Men in the different States it sounds natural and harmonious to say Rhode Island Reds. No harm done if anybody thinks you are talking about something else.

If it gets much worse it will not be long until inmates of the State hospital will be seen sitting in rows doing not a "blooming thing" but swatting flies. It is awful. It is ridiculous. It is laughable.

The nation had a good minstrel manager is Al Field. Here in Newberry is Al Rikard. Those who have heard the rehearsals say he has a fine troupe of genuine negro minstrels getting in readiness to take the road.

The Orangeburg Times and Democrat says that a false alarm of fire was rung in on Saturday night about twelve. There is one place where they have no false alarms of fire and it begins with "h" and ends with "t". The midnight fires burn forever.

In reading the exchanges the exchange editor of The Herald and News sees where his well-known old friend John Smith went from Charlotte to Baltimore on a visit recently. John Smith will live forever. He is everywhere, often in Newberry.

The time is drawing near for the Gettysburg affair. Get ready, old boys, to get there; and it is to be hoped you will, all who want to go. It is a great pity and shame that no more money was allowed the old soldiers.

The Anderson Mail suggests all-day singing and picnics for political meetings. Won't it be great to hear a chorus of would-be governors next summer!—Greenwood Journal. Yes, but the Mail man must remember that Laurens is the place for the meeting.

Next Tuesday, remember voters, is the day for the election on the proposed amendment to the charter of the town and also the election on the question of levying an additional tax of one mill for improvement and repairs in the school district. Both are receiving favorable mention.

Everybody pitch in now and do the right thing for Chautauqua. Let there be no laggards or drones. Shake the bee hive and get busy. "Cast your bread upon the waters." It is just as sure to come back after so many days as that there are frogs by the bushel in the north prong of Scott's Creek with tadpoles without end.

Mr. H. F. Addy received a message on Thursday from Peak stating that his father, Mr. J. B. Addy, was ill. On account of being unwell himself Mr. Addy was unable to go to Peak on Thursday morning. The elder Mr. Addy is in his 88th year.

It is not generally known that Jerusalem is so near. Some people think it is a far away place. In reading the last issue of the Orangeburg Dimes and Democrat we see it stated that the Knights of Pythias of Elmore will hold their annual picnic at Jerusalem church on July 4.

Governor Blease has appointed James S. Daniels to represent his race in Newberry at the Negro National Educational Congress to be held in Kansas City, Mo., July 15-19. Other well known negroes as delegates are Harrison Neely, of Columbia, and R. W. Nance, of Beaufort.

We extend our strong right arm of aid to O. Dammit of Elmfort, N. C., who is making petition to have his name changed. We would either get that name made into something else or move to Helena.—Gaffney Ledger. That's alright about the first part of that paragraph but be careful how you lug Helena into the controversy.

The democrats are restive under President Wilson's slowness, as they call it, in turning the republicans out of office and turning the democrats in. The president has a great deal to do and it takes time to attend to everything that has to be done. He will reach all cases in due course of procedure.

The marriage of Miss Mary Carville Burton takes from society in Newberry one of the most popular young ladies that ever lived here. Everybody loved her. She was dear to old and young alike. All the school children under her clung to her. No child ever wanted to give her up as a teacher. No one ever held a warmer place in the heart of the community. Her place here will be hard to fill. She will be missed by the entire community.

The reporter is under obligations to Mr. Paul Adams for baseball news. People like to read ball literature and Mr. Adams ladels out a good dish of the savory article. The community is indebted to him, as also it is to the fine baseball material which makes it possible to have interesting times in ball circles in Newberry—for instance, Ol Havird, Al Wright, "Pete" Boozer, Livingstone, Campbell, Bishop, Troutman, Mills, Vaughan, Jones and others. All the good baseball boys are not college students.

A lady in Newberry received a post-office money order that was in a badly mutilated condition by the time it reached her hands. The carrier put letter under door. Pup in room chewed letter like billygoat, thinking it was a dead letter. The lady had to have the fragments sent to Washington for a duplicate of the original order. If this had happened in Atlanta the Journal, the Constitution or the Georgian would have had a picture of the dog chewing the letter and a column telling all about it. You Newberry people get off light.

At the meeting of the Cokesbury district woman's foreign and home missionary societies at Whitmire, June 19-22, Mrs. W. H. Wallace will read a paper on "The Negro in the South," Mrs. J. W. White will make report of district secretary of home department, Miss Tilla West will read paper on "The Missionary Society as an Aid to the Pastor," Mrs. P. C. Gaillard will report on Young Peoples' work, and Mrs. C. B. Martin will read paper on "Why are Missionaries Needed in China and Japan More Today Than Ever Before?"

If you want to see something that will make you feel good and that good farming is worth while, go out and see the alfalfa fields of Mr. J. M. Cherry at his farms north of the city.—Rock Hill Record. It can be seen here in Newberry, on Mr. P. E. Scott's patch, and Mr. J. A. Burton's Pool patch. In the county Mr. A. D. Hudson has four or five acres, Mr. L. W. Floyd about fifteen, and Dr. G. Y. Hunter at Prosperity has been successful raising it for years. No doubt there are others. It is no new thing for Newberry, as it seems to be, for other places.

P. F. Baxter and Son sold this week the largest casket ever bought in Newberry. It was for the late J. A. Enlow, who weighed about or at least 340 pounds. To give some idea how large a man he was it may with propriety be related here that a coat fitting him went easily around the forms of Messrs. P. F. Baxter and Silas J. Klettner once in Klettner's store while being tried on. And P. Frank Baxter is himself no small man when you come to think about it, and Silas Klettner is somewhat of a young man in size himself. One leg of the man's pants would hide a pretty good sized man.

Everybody connected with The Herald and News office was pleased to read that nice place about the editor from the Southern School News, one reason being because it said he edited one of the best papers in the State. This embraces within its warm clasp all hands—little carriers, pressman, linotype operator, foreman, ad man, job printer, mail man, exchange editor, bill collector, reporter, to say nothing of the editor-in-chief and proof reader, proprietor, publisher and general manager, all of whom have a hand in it. They all work hard and each man does his duty, having a full share.

Death of Mr. J. A. Enlow.

Mr. John A. Enlow died late on Monday afternoon at his home in the St. Luke's community of Newberry county and was buried at St. Luke's on Tuesday noon, service by Dr. A. J. Bowers. Mr. Enlow was 60 years old and his death was caused by heart dropsy. He is survived by three grown daughters. Mr. Enlow was probably the largest man in the county, being of tremendous proportions, weighing upwards of 350 pounds. Mr. Baxter says his casket was the largest ever sold in Newberry.

Franklin-Culclasure.

Married, June 11, by Rev. T. H. Garrett, Mr. Leroy Culclasure and Miss Inez Franklin, both of Newberry.

CHAPIN CITIZENS

ASK IMPROVEMENT

Petition Supervisor to Fix Two Miles Of Road in Dutch Fork.

Asking for better roads between the 16 and 18 mile posts in the Dutch Fork section is the substance of a petition received by the supervisor of Richland county, Andrew Patterson, Jr., from the citizens of Chapin. The petition will be placed before the county board of commissioners at its semi-monthly meeting Friday.

Eighty-two names are signed to the petition, which asks that the board grant their prayer and improve that section of the road leading to Columbia. The 16 and 18 mile posts are in the section annexed to Richland last summer.—The State.

There are a number of people in Newberry that would be pleased to sign the petition which has been sent up to Richland by the citizens of Chapin, some possibly would like to suggest that the citizens of Chapin, which is within Lexington county still, send up a petition to the supervisor of Lexington to do something on the road from Chapin to Little Mountain. That road could be relocated so as to avoid a number of rough hills, and if the citizens of Chapin will send in a petition to the Lexington supervisor, there are many citizens of Newberry and no doubt of Columbia who would be pleased to join in such a petition.

With the exception of the four miles from Springhill toward Columbia and a portion of the five miles between Chapin and Little Mountain, there is a fine road from Newberry to Columbia, but these stretches mar the pleasure of the trip, and they could be fixed with very little outlay of labor or money.

We hope the petition from the Chapin people will avail much.

Death of Mr. Garvin.

Mr. C. E. Garvin died at his home in Columbia on Thursday morning at 3 o'clock, was the sad message received at 6 o'clock by Mr. George W. Pearson and family. Mr. Garvin was the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Pearson. The body was brought to Newberry on the 2.48 Southern train on Thursday and carried to the Pearson residence, where the funeral will be conducted at 10 o'clock on Friday morning, by the Rev. J. E. Nabors.

Mr. Garvin was from Lancaster He lived some time in Newberry where nearly six years ago he married Miss Sadie Pearson. He worked for awhile in the office of The Herald and News as a printer, later going with Mrs. Garvin to Columbia to work at the trade. He was a good workman and an intelligent man.

The bereaved widow who survives him will have the sympathy of the community in her distress and great affliction at the loss of a loving and devoted husband.

"To hear Thos. E. Green is worth the total cost of a chautauqua ticket and I am glad that he is to come to Columbia. I heard him speak in St. Louis during the peace conference, and he created a profound impression upon his audience."—Rev. C. A. Freed.—Columbia Record, 14th.

A SEVERE WIND STORM.

Visits No. 6 Township.—Injures Fruit Orchard.—Top From Houses.—Other Damages.

There was a heavy wind and rain storm in No. 6 township on Wednesday afternoon late, very hard on Mr. A. A. Cleland's place, tearing his orchard "all to pieces" as Mr. W. G. Peterson, who reported it, said, Mr. Peterson says he counted thirteen trees overblown and saw only one side of the orchard—couldn't see the other side. The wind also blew down other trees on the place.

The storm was quite severe also at Mr. Alf Dorroh's. Besides blowing down a lot of young water oaks in the grove, the wind blew a window sash from outside inside the house, blowing too the top off of a negro cabin on the premises. A freak of the wind on Mr. Dorroh's place was the blowing of a plow from under the house and hurling it 30 or 40 yards distant.

During the same storm in No. 6 lightning killed two cows belonging to John Senn, colored, on Dr. W. D. Senn's place.

Church of the Redeemer.

(Rev. Edward Fuldewider, pastor.) Nothing preventing, the following will be the program of divine services at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer next Sunday:

11 a. m. The regular morning service. The pastor will preach on the subject, "Overcoming the Disagreeable." Text 11 Cor. 12:10, "I delight in weakness, ill-treatment, hardships, persecution, and difficulties, when borne for Christ." 20th century N. T. translation.

It is self-evident that there is much in life that is disagreeable. Being a Christian does not exempt us any more than it did Paul. When Paul said, "I delight in weakness, ill treatment, etc.," it required more courage, faith and the grace of God than to stand before kings and emperors and plead his cause. Many a man is kind, courteous, heroic, and agreeable in the public gaze who plays the part of a weakling before the petty things of life in the privacy of the home and office. Many a person will calmly face great problems, but lose his head and become very disagreeable when "central" does not immediately give the "number" or gives the wrong number. The disagreeable in life tests the fibre of a man's soul and the genuineness of his religion. Some ways to conquer the disagreeable and keep one's self sweet will be given in the sermon. Paul struck the keynote when he said "For Christ's sake."

There will be good music. 10 a. m. The Sunday school meets. From the attendance last Sunday this seems to be the best hour for the school. All the members of the church are requested to attend. Thus not only helping themselves but others. The public is cordially invited to all the services.

Death of a Little Boy.

The 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wicker, after a lingering illness, died of typhoid fever at their home in the Baker neighborhood near Whitmire, on Tuesday afternoon, and was buried at Beth Eden on Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock, service by the Rev. J. M. Fridy.

Death of a Young Lad.

Willie Lee Mack, aged 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Mack, died at home in Mt. Pleasant community of the county late Monday afternoon, and was buried from Mt. Pleasant church on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

A Real Live Indian to Be at the Old Court House Friday.

On Friday, afternoon and night, at the Theato, old court house, Chief Red Eagle, the celebrated Indian entertainer-Ventriloquist, will be seen. He is educated and graduated Indian direct from Hasgkill College, Nebraska.
